

Lesson B-12

Key Word List

assent	(v) to consent; to express agreement (used with to). (n) agreement; consent.
contiguous	adjoining; sharing a boundary.
dissent	(v) to have or express a different opinion. (n) disagreement presentiment	a sense of something about to happen.
sensuous	appealing to the senses, especially aesthetically.
sentinel	a sentry; one who keeps watch.
tactile	pertaining to or using the sense of touch; tangible.
tangent	(adj) 1. touching. 2. irrelevant; off the subject. (n) a sudden change of direction:
tangible	1. perceptible by sense of touch. 2. clear and definite; real; concrete.

Challenge Word List

sententious	given to moralizing in a pompous or affected manner.
sensate	perceiving or perceived by the senses.
contingent	occurring or existing only if (certain other circumstances) are the case; dependent on.