

Era →

The Industrial Revolution

General	← Economic, Technological- →			← Socio-Cultural →
Level 1	1 The Industrial Revolution in Britain	2 The Industrial Revolution in Britain	3 The Spread of Industrialization	4 The Social Impact of Industrialization	5 The Social Impact of Industrialization
Level 2	Origins Supply of Capital Early Entrepreneurs Mineral Resources Role of Government Markets	Technological Changes, New Forms of Industrial Organization The Cotton Industry The Steam Engine The Iron Industry Revolution in Transportation Industrial Factory Britain's Great Exhibition of 1851	Industrialization on the Continent Borrowing Techniques and Practices Role of Government Centers of Continental Industrialization Industrialization in the U.S. Need for Transportation The Labor Force Limiting Industrialization The Example of India	Population Growth The Great Hunger Emigration The Growth of Cities Urban Living Conditions Urban Reformers New Social Class: Industrial Middle Class New Industrial Entrepreneurs Their Significance	New Social Classes: Industrial Workers Working Conditions Did It Improve the Standard of Living? Efforts at Change: The Workers Trade Union Movement Luddites Chartism Efforts at Change: Reformers and Government Government Action
Level 3	Specific Details – To Be Used as Examples				