

Chapter 11: Religion and Reform, 1800-1860

I. Individualism: The Ethic of the Middle Class

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

A. Ralph Waldo Emerson and Transcendentalism

B. Emerson's Literary Influence

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

II. Rural Communalism and Urban Popular Culture

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

A. Mother Ann Lee and the Shakers

B. Arthur Brisbane and Fourierism

C. John Humphrey Noyes and the Oneida Community

D. Joseph Smith and the Mormon Experience

E. Urban Popular Culture

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

III. Abolitionism

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

A. Black Social Thought: Uplift, Race Equality, and Rebellion

B. Evangelical Abolitionism

C. Opposition and Internal Conflict

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

IV. The Women's Rights Movement

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

A. Origins of the Women's Movement

B Abolitionist Women

C. The Program of Seneca Falls and Beyond

What examples would you use to support your thesis?