

Chapter 2: American Experiments, 1521-1700

I. Rival Imperial Models: Spain, France, and Holland

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. New Spain: Colonization and Conversion
- B. New France: Fur Traders and Missionaries
- C. New Netherland: Commerce

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

II. The English Arrive in the Chesapeake

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. Settling the Tobacco Colonies
- B. Masters, Servants, and Slaves
- C. Bacon's Rebellion

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

III. Puritan New England

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. The Puritan Migration
- B. Puritanism and Witchcraft
- C. A Yeoman Society, 1630-1700

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

IV. The Eastern Indians' New World

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. Puritans and Pequots
- B. Metacom's War of 1675–1676
- C. The Destructive Impact of the Fur Trade

What examples would you use to support your thesis?