

Chapter 4: Growth, Diversity, and Conflict, 1720-1763

I. New England's Freehold Society

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. Farm Families: Women in the Household Economy
- B. Farm Property: Inheritance
- C. Freehold Society in Crisis

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

II. Toward a New Society: The Middle Colonies, 1720-1765

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. Economic Growth and Social Inequality
- B. Cultural Diversity
- C. Religious Identity and Political Conflict

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

III. The Enlightenment and the Great Awakening, 1720-1765

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. The Enlightenment in America
- B. American Pietism and the Great Awakening
- C. Religious Upheaval in the North
- D. Social and Religious Conflict in the South

What examples would you use to support your thesis?

IV. The Midcentury Challenge: War, Trade, and Social Conflict, 1750–1765

Write a thesis summarizing the significance of this section.

- A. The French and Indian War
- B. The Great War for Empire
- C. British Industrial Growth and the Consumer Revolution
- D. The Struggle for Land in the East
- E. Western Rebels and Regulators

What examples would you use to support your thesis?